

	Quarter 1			Quarter 2			Quarter 3			Quarter 4
	August	September	October	November	December	January	February	March	April	May
Topic	Angles, Movement, Shots	History and Parts of Film	Choosing Set and Actors	Parts of the Camera	Downloading and Cropping Video	Inserting Titles and Credits	Voiceovers and Audio	Inserting and Designing Images and Graphics	Uploading Video	Storyboarding	Scriptwriting	Researching and Embedding video/audio
Essential Questions	What different shots, angles and movements from the camera capture the viewers' attention?	How has the film industry changed over time and what components are needed for a film to be produced?	What components will be needed for the genre of video, including actors and set design?	What are the basic parts of the camera?	What are the steps to downloading and cropping video? What are the reasons why these would need to happen?	How, when and where do you insert titles and credits?	What are the steps for creating voiceovers and audio for a video, including narration, background sound, and soundtrack.	How do you insert graphics into your video? What application can you use to design and create your own graphics?	What are the steps of loading a video from the camera to the desktop computer?	Why is storyboarding necessary for the development of a video? What are the steps and details?	Why is scriptwriting necessary for the development of a video? What are the parts and details?	Why is researching necessary for the development of an informational video?
Curriculum Materials	Crash course video from YouTube and class handout, cameras	Crash Course video from YouTube	Crash course video from YouTube and class handout	Crash course video on from video and class handout, cameras	iMovie	iMovie	iMovie, Garage Band	iMovie, Google platform, Libre Office Draw	Camera, iMovie	Storyboard That, Storyboard template, Crash course video on YouTube	Scriptwriting Tool	Desktop for researching
Supplemental Materials
Connections			Interview with local news reporters, meteorologists and sports reporters.									Interview with local news reporters, meteorologists and sports reporters.

Assessments	Group Work with camera and quiz	Class handout	Newscast	Short Film, Newscast	Documentary, Newscast	Long Film, Newscast	Newscast, Intro Film, Short Film, Documentary and Long Film	Newscast, Intro Film, Short Film, Documentary and Long Film	Newscast, Intro Film, Short Film, Documentary and Long Film	Newscast, Short Film, Documentary, Long Film	Newscast, Short Film, Long Film	Newscast and Documentary
--------------------	---------------------------------	---------------	----------	----------------------	-----------------------	---------------------	---	---	---	--	---------------------------------	--------------------------